

ERIE'S MIDDLE SCHOOL NEWS

Upcoming Events

November 2nd: 7th and 8th grade field trip to the Chicago International Children's Film Festival!

Students must bring a lunch and wear their regular uniform (polo and khaki)

Our week of learning

7th Grade	8th Grade
English Language Arts Students will finalize and present their Character Analysis posters this week. They will also begin narrative writing using the R.A.F.T. technique.	English Language Arts Students will present their final project assessments in class on Monday, 10/29. They will also begin drafting and revising their Memoirs in class.
Science Students will continue working on base units as we move towards scientific method and engineering design process. Remember weekly vocab and binder turn in.	Science Students have finished up gas laws and we will begin studying matter in terms of the various types of energy. Remember our weekly vocab and binder turn in.
Math 7B students recently finished their quiz on constant proportions and ratios. They will apply the content they recently learned to interpret drawings to scale.	Math Students will be adding and subtracting with scientific notation
Social Studies Students will work on reviewing what they have already learned in preparation for their test. Students will also prepare themselves for a completing a self-selected project on Ancient Egypt.	Social Studies Students will work on reviewing what they have already learned in preparation for their test. Students will also prepare themselves for a completing a self-selected project on Ancient Maya.
Spanish Language Arts Students will be working with Dia de los muertos vocabulary and creating crafts to represent some of the elements of an altar. Students will be reading articles to compare and contrast Halloween and Dia de los Muertos	Spanish Language Arts Students will be working with Dia de los muertos vocabulary and creating crafts to represent some of the elements of an altar. Students will be reading articles to compare and contrast Halloween and Dia de los Muertos
Spanish as a Second Language This week students will be working with Dia de los muertos vocabulary and creating crafts to represent some of the elements of an altar.	Spanish as a Second Language This week students will be working with Dia de los muertos vocabulary and creating crafts to represent some of the elements of an altar.

Ms. Maldonado → jmaldonado@eriecharterschool.org
Mrs. Villegas-Ortega → dvillegasortega@eriecharterschool.org
Mr. Hernandez → ahernandez@eriecharterschool.org

Mr. Cajigas → jcajigas@eriecharterschool.org
Ms. Lannert → llannert@eriecharterschool.org
Ms. Calderon → tcalderon@eriecharterschool.org